

BURNT RIVER ACTIVITIES GUIDE

June 2009

There have been many issues of the BRAG in which efforts of our local gardeners and members of the B.R. Blooms Committee have been applauded. Visitors and residents gave commented on our public gardens and Burnt River has won awards and recognition. To maintain these gardens takes hard work on the part of a very few volunteers. Therefore, when flowers are actually stolen, great clumps of perennials dug up or clippings chunked out of flowering bushes, it is beyond comprehension. The white Casablanca oriental lilies have been stolen from St. Luke's Anglican Church Memorial garden. God particularly loved these lilies and He loved them in this garden. Whoever swiped them should maybe rethink all of this.

Tuesday, June 9th and 16th

Quilt As You Go Classes will be held from noon to 4 p.m. at the Burnt River Community Centre. For more information contact Noni Campbell at 454-8007.
