Burnt River Firefighters

had a sell out at their 5th annual Jewellery, Brunch and Fashion show. All 139 people had a great brunch consisting of biscuits fresh from the oven, baked home fries, sausage, peameal bacon, regular bacon, scrambled eggs, fresh fruit and jams, tea and coffee. After brunch the fashion show was presented by the Village Shop in Fenelon Falls with clothing from, Simon Chang, Royal Robins, Tribal Sports Wear, and French Dressing. Thanks to those who donated door prizes, The Big Event - Fenelon Falls, Handley Lumber Fenelon Falls,, M.A.P - Fenelon Falls, Sam Hopkins Burnt River, Kawartha Lakes EMS, Fire Chief Dave Guilbault, John Blackmore, Burnt River Firefighter Association, Kawartha Lakes Volunteer Firefighter's Association. Some of the money raised was donated to The Salvation Army - Fenelon Falls, Kawartha Lakes Food Source, A Place Called Home, and Ride For The Cure (cancer). John Blackmore has challenged all Firefighters to donate to the Ride For The Cure, George Skerratt a Paramedic will ride his bicycle 200 miles on June 12 and 13 - 2010 from Toronto to Niagara Falls. With this challenge we hope to put George over the top. For more information you can call John at 454-8577. We are looking forward to our 6th show next year.

Sunday June 6th

Mark your calendars for Burnt River United Church 122nd Anniversary. Service begins at 11 a.m. with George Bradbury speaking, followed by a pot luck lunch on the lawn, weather permitting. The choir prepares a singing number for this. All are invited to come and share in the celebration.

Thought for the Month: By the time you wait for your ship to come in, the cargo may have shifted.
